TO Z

WEDNESDAY
JUNE 19TH @ 6PM

KINGSTON GRAND THEATRE

EST. 1879

The Anishinaabe, Haudenosaunee and Huron-Wendat peoples develop, maintain, sustain, and enrich the lands of Katarokwi through their relationship with and stewardship of these lands. The Grand Theatre where our community gathers and performs today could not exist without the presence, wisdom, strength, and resilience of Indigenous peoples. We recognize the impacts of colonialism in the spaces we live, study, work, and dance. We commit to practices that better educate, acknowledge, and respect all of Kingston's histories.
